

Hawaii Fiction Writers

Call for Submissions for 2023 publication: Lost In the Stacks, and Other Library Stories

Please follow these submission guidelines:

1. Original authorship.
2. Not previously published.
3. Length: up to 3,500 words.
4. You may submit up to two pieces.
5. Submission deadline: October 31, 2023.
6. Submit electronic only, in MS Word, Times New Roman, 12 point, double spaced, and include your contact information and word count.
7. Send by email as an attachment to mlittlehi@gmail.com, with subject line
LOST IN THE STACKS SUBMISSION

Note: Pieces in this collection will have First North American rights. Authors are free to publish their work elsewhere after publication in this collection.

Editors' Tips:

1. We are looking for entertaining short stories, with focus on libraries in any time or place.
2. Submissions may be in any genre, except erotica.
3. Be fastidious regarding the basics such as spell check and grammar. Submit a story that entertains and one that the reader can easily follow. The editors will read all manuscripts submitted during the reading period up to October 31, 2023. If you receive a request to rewrite your story, it is up to you to do so. A rewrite is not a guarantee of acceptance for publication.